The report of the board of home missions showed the total number of ministers employed was 2,112, of whom 732 were under the charge of the synods of states and independent of the board. The synods expended $125,365 in their support, and the board $685,454 on field work. The board began the year with a debt of $167,839; the total contributions were $856,906; so the board had no debt to show. The conversions reported were 700. In the 1,456 churches ander the board there was a total membership of 74,832, of whom 7,346 were added on confession of faith. The board organized during the year 231 Sunday schools, built 66 churches at a cost of $34,051, and repaired and enlarged 233 others at a cost of $57,916. Beside $76,000 of church debts were canceled during the year. Seven church organizations reached the stage of selfsupporting and 47 new ones were or-

The trust that was organized with Mr. Greenhut as president, fixed prices for jobbers and that was a satisfactory arrangement as long as it lasted, There were rebates and penalties and the trade generally observed the regu-lations while that agreement remained in force. Finally, however, there was demoralization and prices were forced up to the detriment of a great many in

Cook said the men behind it had en-deavored to get control of the entire distributing trade of the country. The offers made his firm by the combination were unfair and unprofitable and they trust was more liberal in many senses.

His firm built a plant of their own to protect their interests. Many large protect their interests. Many large protect their interests. Many large houses paid them half a cent more for goods rather than buy from the trust.

NEW YORK, May 20 .- A feature of the sessions of the Mazet investigating committee was the unearthing of an alleged system of corruption in the disposition of dead bodies from a city hospital; a ghoulish tale that was well corroborated and replete with detail. By several witnesses it was stated that an undertaker named Marren illegally secured the funeral of all bodies taken to Harlem hospital and that he was enabled to do this by bribing clerks in the employ of the city to break the rules. It was also shown that apparently an acquaintanceship existed between Marren and Messrs.
